

News of Nathaniel Brown's Seminary Journey

May 2018

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and our LORD Jesus Christ! April and May have been busy for me for both months. Call Day was at the end of April and I got to help by being one of the streamer bearers for the service! It has been amazing serving as Assistant Sacristan for the past month and a half, and now I have the official Sacristan Position. Call Day was humbling, because May 1, 2019, I will know where I am serving for my vicarage year. I know that I have a lot to learn until then, but the days have begun to be counted down.

This year, the second years were amazing to get myself and all of the first years on our feet for Seminary, and it is hard to think that I will be in that position when I am back on campus for the summer.

I also finished all of my classes including my Homiletics classes! My first sermon went really well, and I am preaching it at my Field Work Church in June. I am preaching three times next month, so I am excited to be doing all three and it will be good practice for when I am in the parish and I need to do it every week. God's blessings to all of you for this upcoming month and for the summer!†

Prayer List:

- For all people, that they may come to the knowledge of Christ and so be saved.
- For all our leaders, that the rules they enact may lead us to quiet and dignified lives.
- That the Church may be strengthened.
- For the Seminary students in St. Louis and in Ft. Wayne, that they may be able to serve His people faithfully.
- That the second years going on vicarage and fourth years receiving their first calls may be strengthened.
- That peace can occur in the Middle East and on the Korean peninsula.
