About Our Speakers

Rev. Brent Kuhlman

Rev. Brent Kuhlman is the Editor of LOGIA Forum and has served on the Board of Directors for Higher Things. He served as pastor of Faith Lutheran Church in Hebron, NE from 1991-1997 and presently serves as the Pastor at Trinity Lutheran Church in Murdock, NE. His wife, Robin, is an elementary teacher and together they have three grown children.

Pastor Kuhlman received his Master of Divinity in 1990 from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis and his Master of Sacred Theology degree in 1995, also from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. Rev. Kuhlman has been a guest instructor at Concordia University in Seward, NE, Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, IN, and the Lutheran Seminary in Novosibirsk, Russia. He has also taught in Sumatra, Vietnam, and Tanzania.

Pastor Kuhlman also occupies his time by golfing and driving the school bus for the Elmwood-Murdock school district.

Rev. President John Hill

Rev. John Hill is the President of the Wyoming District—LCMS. Before becoming President in 2015, he was the Pastor at Mount Hope Lutheran Church in Casper, WY for 19 years. His wife, Angie, is a teacher at Mount Hope Lutheran School, and they have five grown children and six grandchildren and more on the way.

President Hill received his Master of Divinity from Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, IN in 1990, and his Master of Sacred Theology in 2009.

President Hill enjoys skiing in the winter months, hiking in the summer months, and traveling to spend time with his children and grandchildren.
