

Second Year Seminarian Nathaniel Brown's Journey

April 2019

Christ is Risen! He is Risen indeed, alleluia! Easter is finally here, and with it being a late Easter this year, it seems like it has been a long Lenten season. It has been a full month for me

As has been common this year, Vicarage is on my mind. This is the last month I will not know where I am going. In less than 2 weeks I will know where I am serving for vicarage. I am super excited to finally learn where I am going, and to meet the people that I am serving. I know that not everyone will be able to make it to the St. Louis Campus on May 1 to watch the service in person, but you can watch it online. The service will be at 3 PM Central Time, and the website that you can watch the service online is <https://callday.csl.edu/>. I pray that all of you have the availability to watch the service because it is honestly the first time I will know where I am going, and it generally is a wonderful service to watch.

Also next month, I will be travelling to Israel, beginning May 22. Most of my map work is completed, and I hope to have it entirely done by Call Day. I am very excited to go and see the land where our story from creation to resurrection actually took place. I will see a lot there, including the

Mount of Olives and the Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

Prayer List:

- For all people, that they may come to the knowledge of Christ and so be saved.
- For all our leaders, that the rules they enact may lead us to quiet and dignified lives.
- That the Church may be strengthened.
- For the Seminary students in St. Louis and in Ft. Wayne, that they may be able to serve His people faithfully.
- That the second years going on vicarage and fourth years receiving their first calls may be strengthened.
- For all pastors and professors that they may be faithful in their service to the Church and to the Scripture
- For the people who are experiencing historic flooding in Nebraska, Iowa, and Wisconsin

If you have prayer requests, or want to talk, please send them to me!

My email is brownn@csl.edu, and my address is: 801 Seminary Place St. Louis, MO 63105

I have also been continuing to teach Sunday School at my Field Work Congregation. This semester we are talking about the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. The past couple of weeks we have talked about the last week of Jesus life. We did a week on the raising of Lazarus, and the Triumphal Entry, a week on Maundy Thursday through Good Friday, and the week after Easter we are discussing what happened on the first Easter. It has been fantastic to show the next generation about the life of Jesus while also helping them explore hard hitting questions and pointing them to Christ at the same time.

I also haven't said it enough, but thank you all for your continued support as I go through this Seminary journey. From donating to the Seminary, to writing to me, to your continued prayers, you all are immensely helpful in helping me keep the focus on Christ and what He did. Thanks is often lacking in our culture and society, but I wanted to remind you that even if I don't say it, I am thankful for you and the support you have offered me. God's richest blessings to all of you this month and this Easter Season. He is risen! He is risen indeed, alleluia!✝

